

Disputes and Arbitration ( 49 to 50 )

(2) Where neither party appears when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that it be dismissed for default.

(3) Where the opponent appears and the disputant does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that the dispute be dismissed, unless the opponent admits the claims or a part thereof, in which case the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may make an order against the opponent upon such admission, and where, part only of the claim is admitted, may dismiss the dispute in so far as it relates to the remainder.

(4) Where the disputant appears and the opponent does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, then if the Registrar or his nominee is satisfied from the record and proceeding that the summons was duly served, the Registrar or his nominee may proceed with the dispute ex parte. Where the summons is served by any officer of the Registrar or his nominee, he shall make his report of service on oath.

(5) The Registrar or his nominee may not ordinarily grant more than two adjournments to each party to the dispute at his request. The Registrar or his nominee may, however, at his discretion grant such further adjournments on payment of such costs to the other side and such fees to the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may direct.

(6) Any party to a dispute may apply for and obtain a certified copy of any order, judgment or award made by the Registrar or his nominee on payment of copying fees, at the rate prescribed Appendix II.

(50) Summonses, notices and fixing of dates, places, etc., in connection with the disputes.—(1) The Registrar or, as the case may be, his nominee, may issue summonses or notices at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the hearing of the dispute requiring.

(i) the attendance of the parties to the dispute and of witnesses, if any; and

(ii) the production of all books and documents relating to the matter in dispute.

(2) Summonses or notices issued by the Registrar or his nominee may be served through a Tahsildar or any employee of the Chit Department or by registered post with acknowledgment due.

(3) The Officer serving a summons or notice shall, in all cases in which summons or notice has been served, endorse annex or cause to be endorsed on or annexed to, the original summons or notice, a return stating the time when, and the manner in which, the summons or, notice as the case may be was served, and the name and address of the person(if any) identifying the person served and witnessing the delivery or tender of the summons or the notice.

(4) The Official issuing the summons or notice may examine the serving officer on oath or cause him to be so examined by the Officer through whom it is served and may make such further inquiry in the matter as he thinks fit; and shall either declare that the summons or, notice as the case may be, has been duly served or order it to be served in such manner as he thinks fit.
