

Disputes and Arbitration (56)

(7) If the property is transferred to the judgment creditor in partial satisfaction of the amount due to him from the defaulter, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall on the production by the judgment creditor of a certificate signed by the Registrar, recover the balance due in the manner laid down in Section 71.

(8) The transfer of the property under sub-rule (5) shall be effected as follows:-

(i) In the case of movable property-

(a) Where the property is in the possession of the defaulter himself or has been taken possession of on behalf of the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, it shall be delivered to the judgment creditor.

(b) Where the property is in the possession of some person on behalf of a defaulter, the delivery thereof shall be made by giving notice to the person in possession directing him to give actual peaceful possession to the judgment creditor and prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any other person.

(c) The property shall be delivered to a person authorized by the party to take possession on behalf of the judgment creditor.

(ii) In the case of immovable property--

(a) Where the property is growing or standing crop, it may be delivered to the judgment creditor before it is cut and gathered and the judgment creditor shall be entitled to enter on the land and to do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and cutting and gathering it.

(b) Where the property is in the possession of the defaulter or of some person on his behalf or some person claiming under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the issue of a certificate under Section 71, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall order delivery to be made by putting the judgment creditor or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf in actual possession of the property and if need be by removing any person who illegally refuses to vacate the same.

(c) Where the property is in the possession of a tenant or other person entitled to hold the same by a title acquired before the date of issue of a certificate under Section 71, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall order delivery to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of transfer of the property and proclaiming to such person by beat of drum or other customary mode at some convenient place that the interest of the defaulter has been transferred to the judgment creditor.

(9) The judgment creditor shall be required to pay expenses incidental to sale including the cost of maintenance of livestock, if any, according to such scale as may be fixed by the Registrar from time to time.

(10) Where land is transferred to the judgment creditor under sub-clause (a) of clause (ii) of sub-rule (8) before the growing or standing crop is cut and gathered, the judgment creditor shall be liable to pay the current year's land revenue on the land.
